ABOUT KEVIN

Clarence Thomas, Supreme Court Justice, said, "Kevin Jackson has an uncanny way of taking the most important issues of our day & condensing them into clever, easily understandable, irrefutable positions."

Kevin was orphaned at age five & raised by his grandparents on a cattle ranch. Their example is where Kevin acquired his indomitable spirit, passion to help others, love of country, conservative values, & leadership skills. It is this pivot in life that bred Kevin's focused work ethic & desire to reach & change communities through speaking engagements; Kevin helps young minds & adults to work through hardships & experience life without victimhood, labels or ceilings.

MULTI-MEDIA ICON

Kevin's razor-sharp, fast-paced wit & intellect are truly addictive. His magnetism invites people in & keeps every audience member riveted. He focuses on elevating our knowledge of history & current events, especially in relation to debunking The 1619 Project, BLM & Critical Race Theory. As a husband, father of 4 boys, & son of a Black Panther - he shares relatable, true stories that are unforgettable. As a news journalist - he shares the facts the back up those stories.

Kevin is a TV news contributor, director, award-winning filmmaker, best selling author of 3 books, host of a nationally syndicated radio & podcast show, author of daily political articles, nationally known keynote speaker, & the CEO of THE KEVIN JACKSON NETWORK®. He holds 3 degrees in electrical engineering, computer science & math. Discover Kevin's mission, books, articles, initiatives, projects & his ABOUT bio with speeches at: www.TheKevinJacksonNetwork.com
